Question 1	The question is answered completely in detail and in all its parts. The response shows a definite connection between the concepts learned in this course and the answers or suggestions given. All material is cited appropriately and correctly. There are no (or very minimal) errors in grammar and spelling. At least three classroom resources were used. (41-50 points)	The question is answered almost completely and in all its parts. The student has obviously used the materials and learning from the class to inform the responses and suggestions. Some small clarifications might be needed to make the response fully complete. Some small mistakes might occur in grammar or spelling. Citations and references are used according to APA. (36-40 points)	The response to the question is adequate. There may be some details that were not addressed OR there may be some clarifications needed to explain the response and suggestions. Few mistakes in spelling and grammar, but do not hinder understanding. Citations and references are used appropriately, there may be some mistakes but the sources are all evident. (31-35 points)	At least two of these apply: The response to the question is not satisfactory. It is missing essentials points or concepts, OR does not address the question accurately. There is some evidence of related content in the responses and suggestions but would need to be clarified. There may be errors in grammar and spelling that distract from the content. There may be errors in citation that are mislead-	Missing (0 points)	/ 50
